STATE OFFICE CLOSURES EXTENDED IN 4 PARISHES FOR SEPT. 12-13

Commissioner of Administration Jay Dardenne is announcing that state offices in four Louisiana parishes will continue to be closed Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 12 – 13, in the aftermath of Hurricane Laura. Those parishes that will be closed are Allen, Beauregard, Calcasieu and Cameron. These are the same parishes that were closed Friday, Sept. 11.

All agency heads are responsible for determining those essential personnel who should remain on duty, report for duty or those who should report to alternate work sites as necessary. Officials continue to monitor conditions throughout the state, and this announcement may be updated.

This office closure applies to all nonessential employees, including those authorized to work from home due to COVID-19.

TIMEKEEPERS: This is an office closure and should be coded as such. All employees in the affected parishes, including those authorized to work from home due to COVID-19, should use the Office Closure code (LSOC). Employees with further questions should seek guidance from their supervisors.

State employees should be aware of the following phone numbers to call, which will be updated: 1.800.360.9660 or 225.342.0498.
